Two pages

The lens opens a PDF beside its Markdown and reads it in place.
A selection on a page is a selection of text, so an extract or a card can be carved from it the way it is carved from a paragraph.
The ruler in the margin marks the page you are on.

Spaced practice beats massed practice, and the gap should grow with each pass.
A card made here lands under a heading that names the page.
Nothing is ever written into this file.
